	SWAPI Testing
#	API Endpoint	Scenario	Steps	Expectation	Outcome	Observations
1	GET /people	Check result count of GET /people	1. Call the /people endpoint. 2. Check that the count property equals 82. 3. Count the number of people returned. 4. Iterate through the rest of the pages, and accumulate the count of people accordingly. 5. Check that the total count of people equals 82.	Test passes with count property and total number of people equal 82.	Test passes with count property and total number of people equal 82.	N/A
2	GET /people/{id}	Check properties returned for each person	1. Call the /people endpoint. 2. For each page, iterate and call the /people/{id} endpoint for each person. 3. Verify that the response from /people/{id} endpoint returns all expected properties.	Test passes with all person response returning all expected properties.	Test passes with all person response returning all expected properties.	N/A
3	GET /people/{id}	Check that gender value is one of "male", "female", or "n/a"	1. Call the /people endpoint. 2. For each page, iterate and call the /people/{id} endpoint for each person. 3. Check that the value of the gender property is either "male", "female", or "n/a".	Test passes with all person's gender being one of "male", "female", or "n/a".	Test fails.	One or more of the data has a gender value of "hermaphrodite".